BERGDOLL - TURK

MARRIED IN MARION, ALA.

The wedding ceremony of Miss Ruth Hazel Turk, and Mr. James Richard Bergdoll, of Ashland, Va., took place in the Methodist Church in Marion, Alabama on Saturday, August 1.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Turk, of Marion. The groom's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Richard A. Bergdoll, of Appomattox, Va.

The ceremony, officiated by the father of the groom, and assisted by the Rev. R. H. Collins, took place at 2:30 o'clock.

Allen Turk, brother of the bride, and Donald Holley, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. Soloists were Mr. Kermit W. Fix, of Marion, and Mrs. J. Fred Miller, III, of Selma, Ala. Music was by Mr. Johnny Wilbourne, organist.

Mrs. Clyde Bradley Barton, of Marion served her sister as matron of honor. Other attendants were: Misses Bonnie Clarke, Newport News, Va.; Patricia Bradley, of Greensboro, Ala.; Sara Elizabeth Boozer, Sweetwater, Ala.; Mrs. Gerald P. Nichols, Birmingham; Mrs. W. H. Stewart, Jr., Houston, Texas; Mrs. John F. Yeager, Jr., Savannah, Ga. The attendants wore dresses of mint green sheer de swa over taffeta which featured scoop necklines and street - length, full skirts. They wore matching headbands and carried fan-shaped bouquets of pink and white carnations. The matron of honor wore an identical dress of shell pink.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in tulle over taffeta with a bouffant skirt featuring lace appliques, seed pearls, and sequins. The lace bodice was styled with a bateau neckline and short, shirred sleeves. A series of back poufs of taffeta fell into the chapel train. The fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a lace and seed pearl tiara. The bride carried a small white Bible covered with stephanotis and lily of the valley, centered with a white orchid.

George H. Bergdoll, of Appomattox, Va., served his brother as best man. Ushers were: Messrs. Wayne Turk, brother of the bride; and Clyde B. Bertin, of Marion; John P. Clarke, Richmond; James R. Allen, Arlington, Va.; William G. Boice, Harrisonburg, and the Rev. Roy E. Brinkley, Jr., of Richmond.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Turk chose an ice blue lace sheath with matching hat. Her accessories were white and her corsage was a lavender orchid. The mother of the groom wore dusty rose lace and matching accessories with a lavender orchid corsage.

The reception following the wedding was held in the parlors of Jewett Hall, of Judson College. Those assisting at the reception were: Mrs. J .R. Holley, Tullahoma, Tenn.; Mrs. W. G. Buckley, Bogalusa, La.; Mrs. R. H. Whitman, Birmingham; Mrs. W. G. Boice, Harrisonburg, Va.; Mrs. James R. Allen ,Arlington, Va.; Mrs. Ken Portain, Birmingham, Ala.; Misses Mary Norma Powers, Moundville, Ala.; Sylvia Smith, Tuskegee, Miss Charlene Standard, Elkton, Kentucky, kept the bride's book.

For going away, the bride chose a light blue cotton suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. After a wedding trip to the Florida Gulf Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Bergdoll will make their home in Ashland, Virginia.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Editor's note: Here are the questions asked most frequently by Virginia farmers during the week, as reported by county agricultural agents. Staff members of the VPI Agricultural Extension Service and/or Experiment Station supply the answers.)

Q. Can heptachlor in fertilizer be used at seeding time to control the alfalfa weevil?

A. No! The insecticide applied in this manner would no no good.

Q. What can I seed for a good lawn?

A. Variations in lawn grass mixtures are endless. For suggestions ask your county agent, or write the VPI Agricultural Extension Service, for a free copy of Bulletin 243, "Lawns for Virginia."

Q. I am having trouble with peat and apple tree blight. What can I do?

A. Not much now, except to prune out dead wood and avoid fertilizing the trees, Antibiotic sprays applied during the blossom period will effectively prevent this disease.

Q. How can I control crabgrass in my lawn?

A. Good cultural practices are the basis for any weed control program. Certain chemicals can be used as a supplement to good management. Phenyl mercuric acetate is best to use early in the crabgrass season while either potassium cyanate or

MISS FRANKLIN IS WED TO DAVID O .AUSTIN

Miss Hazel Roberta Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs J. G. Franklin, and David Omar Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Austin, all of Appomattox, were married Saturday evening at 8, in Hollywood Baptist Church, this county.

Rev. Winfred Elder performed the double ring ceremony against a background of white gladioli, palms and candelabra. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Winfred Elder, pianist, and Frank Gasson, Jr., soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned with lace bodie and scalloped V-neckline. The floor-length skirt consisted of rows of tulle ruffles under a pointed lace peplum worn in panier style. Her veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a prayer book topped with an orchid.

Miss Annie Mobie Goin, matron of honor, wore a dress of blue taffeta. Miss Judy Gail Goin was senior bridesmaid and Cynthia Ann Jenkins was flower girl, with Dennis Doss as ring bearer.

Tom Edd Woodson was best man. Ushers were Rodger Franklin, Joe Goin, Dee Doss, Bert Joley and Billy Franklin, junior usher.

For their southern wedding trip the bride changed to an aqua dress of organza over taffeta, adding the orchid from her bouquet.

Upon their return, they will live in Appomattox.

Firemen Answer Dream

Tuscaloosa, Ala.- Firemen were routed from their sleep at 1:30 A. M. recently to answer a call from a woman who dreamed her house was on fire, woke up, and phoned in the alarm.

Odd Apetite

Ontario, Canada.- Two blonde bears who scrounge for food in a garage near a resort at Rainy Lake, have a strange appetite. They will eat only potato peelings which have been doused with gasoline preparatory to burning.

The most important matter before the American people today is the fight against inflation.

The trouble with speakers is that they shout too loudly for the little they have to say.
